I. Introduction

1. At the commencement of the sixty-second session, on Monday, 24 September 2007, the Secretary-General will host a high-level event entitled "The future in our hands: addressing the leadership challenge of climate change". The general debate will be held immediately thereafter, from Tuesday, 25 September to Wednesday, 3 October 2007.

2. Information pertaining specifically to the organization of the above-mentioned high-level event is provided in document A/INF/62/3/Add.1.

3. The General Assembly, by its resolution 61/269 of 25 May 2007, also decided to convene the High-level Dialogue on Interreligious and Intercultural Understanding and Cooperation for Peace on 4 and 5 October 2007.

II. Arrivals and departures

Port-of-entry arrangements for Heads of State/Government, Vice-Presidents and Crown Princes

4. Member States, through their Permanent Missions and in coordination with the host country and host city authorities, are responsible for compliance with all host country requirements with regard to entry formalities. They are also responsible for all arrangements, such as travel to New York City, transit, ground transportation, attention to special health and medical considerations, secretariat and telecommunication services, and for the delegation's programme of activities that are not related to the high-level meetings and the general debate.

Procedures at United Nations Headquarters during the period of the high-level meetings and the general debate of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly, 21 September to 3 October 2007

5. The host country will provide transportation and security protection to Heads of State/Government and some heads of delegations during their stay in New York. The size of the motorcade will be determined by the host country law enforcement authorities and in accordance with the established threat assessment of the VIP. Only identified motorcades of Heads of State/Government and high-threat-level motorcades will be allowed to enter the United Nations through the 43rd Street gate and discharge their VIPs at the Delegates Entrance, exit via the 45th Street gate and stand by at the designated staging area. Permission for staging at the Secretariat Circle will be granted only for high-threat-level motorcades. All escorted low- and medium-threat-level motorcades and unescorted motorcades will discharge their VIPs further down First Avenue at the 46th Street gate. VIPs will then be directed to the southbound gate of the 46th Street entrance and proceed to the screening point at the Delegates Entrance.

6. A motorcade desk will be established on the first floor, north of the Delegates Entrance (GA-101), to facilitate communication to security components upon the departure of VIPs.

7. Strict adherence to the following requirements will ensure the timely and secure arrival of all parties:

(a) All persons travelling in motorcades will be required to wear a valid United Nations photo identification. A secondary pass (six plus four) will be required in order to proceed to the restricted areas, e.g., 2nd floor and General Assembly Hall. Entry to the restricted areas will require compliance with security screening procedures;

(b) With the exception of identified motorcades, all vehicles will require a special entry permit to enter the complex. The permits are available through the Garage Administration (room CB-021; tel.: (212) 963-6212).

III. Schedules, list of speakers, statements, documentation and interpretation

Plenary meetings

8. The general debate will begin on 25 September 2007 in the General Assembly Hall and continue until 3 October 2007. From 25 to 28 September, meetings will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 7 p.m. From 1 to 3 October, meetings will be held from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 7 p.m.

9. The High-level Dialogue on Interreligious and Intercultural Understanding and Cooperation for Peace will consist of three plenary meetings — one on the morning of 4 October 2007 and two on 5 October 2007 — and an informal interactive hearing with representatives of civil society on the afternoon of 4 October 2007.

10. The list of speakers for the general debate and the High-level Dialogue is available in rooms S-2925 and S-2940B. Any change or addition to the list of speakers should be communicated in writing to the General Assembly and Economic and Social Council Affairs Division (room S-2940B; tel.: (212) 963-5063; fax: (212) 963-3783).

11. A minimum of 30 copies of the text of statements to be delivered at the high-level meetings should be submitted in advance to the Secretariat; failing this, delegations are urged to provide six copies for the interpreters before the speaker takes the floor. If delegations wish to have the text of statements distributed to all delegations, observers, specialized agencies, interpreters, record-writers and press officers, 350 copies are required. For distribution of the texts of statements to the press, please see section XII below.

12. Given the security arrangements in place for the high-level meetings, texts of statements should be delivered to the receiving area located at the rear of the General Assembly Hall between the hours of 8 and 9.30 a.m. by a delegation representative in possession of a valid United Nations building pass. Access will be through the 46th Street gate to the Visitors Entrance, through the electronic screening area to the elevators on the west side of the Lobby to the receiving area, where a representative of the Secretariat will accept the texts at a special counter. Texts of speeches will be accepted only on the same day that they are to be given.

13. Only official documents of the high-level meetings, that carry a General Assembly document symbol and texts of statements to be delivered in plenary meetings will be distributed in the General Assembly Hall.

14. Statements made in any of the six official languages of the General Assembly are interpreted into the other official languages. Any speaker may also make a statement in a language other than the official languages. In such cases, in accordance with rule 53 of the rules of procedure of the Assembly, the delegation in question must provide either an interpreter from the non-official into an official language or a written text of the statement in one of the official languages to be read out by a United Nations interpreter. On the basis of this interpretation or the written text which is accepted by the Secretariat as representing the official text of the statement, it will be interpreted into the other official languages by United Nations interpreters. When a written text is provided, the delegation concerned should make available to the interpreter someone who knows the language in which the statement is to be delivered and the official language into which it has been translated, to guide the interpreter through the translated text and to ensure synchronization between the speaker and the interpreter. Detailed arrangements for interpretation from non-official languages, including access by non-United Nations interpreters to the interpreters booths in the General Assembly Hall, must be made in advance through the Planning and Meeting Servicing Section (tel: (212) 963-8114; fax: (212) 963-7405; e-mail: emeetsm@un.org).

IV. List of delegations

15. A list of delegations to the sixty-second session of the General Assembly will be published by the Protocol and Liaison Service. Missions are kindly requested to submit a comprehensive official list of delegations, including the functional titles and affiliations of each member, to the Chief of Protocol (room S-0201; fax: (212) 963-1921) as soon as possible. In order to avoid confusion, any changes to the original list should be sent separately, bearing in mind that such changes should not be incorporated into the list previously submitted to the Protocol and Liaison Service. Missions are encouraged to transmit their comprehensive lists of delegations first electronically to sutliff@un.org, followed by a signed copy to be delivered to the Protocol and Liaison Service.

16. Each delegation shall "consist of not more than five representatives, and five alternate representatives, and as many advisers and experts as may be required" (rules of procedure of the General Assembly, sect. III, rule 25). With the exception of a Head of State/Government, Crown Prince/Princess, Vice-President or Minister for Foreign Affairs, who would be listed as the head of delegation ex officio during his/her presence at the session, all other heads of delegations shall be counted as one of the five representatives. If the five representatives and five alternate representatives are not specified as required by the rules of procedure of the General Assembly, the first 10 members of the delegation in the order of their listing will then be considered as representatives and alternate representatives, for the purpose of publishing the lists of delegations. The names of members of media and security accompanying a Head of State/Government should be forwarded to the Media Accreditation Unit and not included in the official list of delegations. All documents, forms and information material on the sixty-second session of the General Assembly issued by the Protocol and Liaison Service may be accessed at the Protocol website: missions.un.int/protocol.

V. Registration and accreditation

17. Accreditation of official delegations and members of the parties of Heads of State/Government, Crown Princes/Princesses and Vice-Presidents will be carried out by the Protocol and Liaison Service. Missions are kindly requested to communicate the names, functional titles and affiliations of all the members of the respective delegations, together with the SG.6 form entitled "Registration of members of delegations to temporary meetings",[1] duly filled out, to the Chief of Protocol (room S-0201; fax: (212) 963-1921) .

18. Once the lists of delegates, together with the SG.6 forms, are received at the Protocol and Liaison Service, they will be reviewed and authorized. To ensure the issuance of United Nations grounds passes in a timely manner, representatives of Permanent/Observer Missions are requested to collect the authorized applications 48 hours after submission to the Protocol and Liaison Service and deliver them to the delegates for processing. If the name and the photograph of a delegate are already in the computer system of the Pass and Identification Office, his/her pass may be collected by a representative of the Permanent/Observer Mission in the absence of the delegate, upon presentation of the authorized application and a valid United Nations grounds pass. Otherwise, delegates who are in need of a photo ID are required to come with their SG.6 forms to the Pass and Identification Office, 45th Street and First Avenue, to have a photo taken and a pass processed.

19. Heads of State/Government, Vice-Presidents, Crown Princes/Princesses and their spouses will be offered VIP passes without photographs. Deputy Prime Ministers, Cabinet Ministers and spouses thereof will be provided with VIP passes with photographs. In order for a VIP pass to be issued, appropriate requests and two colour passport-size photographs should be submitted in advance to the Protocol and Liaison Service.

20. Delegations wishing to send colour photographs by e-mail to the Protocol and Liaison Service must scan the official letter and photograph and send them together, in one complete package, to curran@un.org. Colour photographs must be in jpeg format only.

21. A separate list specifying the names of the members of the party of the Head of State or Government who require access to the United Nations — as well as their occupations (aides de camp, interpreters, physicians etc.) — must be submitted together with the SG.6 forms to the Protocol and Liaison Service. Passes for members of security details accompanying VIPs will be issued by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (tel: (212) 963-2687). Passes for media personnel will be handled by the Media Accreditation Unit (tel: (212) 963-6934).

22. Working hours of the Accreditation Unit in the Protocol and Liaison Service ((212) 963-7181) and the United Nations Pass and Identification Office (ground floor of the UNITAR Building, 45th Street and First Avenue (212) 963-7533), in the days prior and during the general debate, will be posted at the Protocol website (mission.un.int/protocol) and at the entry to each respective office at the latest by 4 September 2007.

[1] SG.6 forms may be downloaded from the following website: http://missions.un.int/protocol.

VI. Welcoming reception

23. On Tuesday, 25 September 2007, the opening day of the General Debate, the Secretary-General and Mrs. Ban Soon-taek will host a welcoming reception in honour of the Heads of State and Government, Vice-Presidents and Crown Princes/Princesses participating in the sixty-second session of the General Assembly and spouses thereof, from 7 to 8.50 a.m. in the North Delegates Lounge. Buffet breakfast will be available.

VII. Official dinner

24. There will be an official dinner hosted by the Secretary-General in honour of the Heads of State/Government attending the sixty-second session of the General Assembly in the Delegates North Lounge on Tuesday, 25 September 2007, at 8.30 p.m. Heads of delegations at levels other than those of Heads of State and Government will also be invited. Invitations will be issued in due course for this event.

VIII. Programme for spouses

25. Mrs. Ban Soon-taek, wife of the Secretary-General of the United Nations, will host two social events for the spouses of Heads of State and Government, Vice-Presidents and Deputy Prime Ministers participating in the sixty-second session of the General Assembly:

- A tea reception on Tuesday, 25 September 2007, at 4.30 p.m., at the official residence of the Secretary-General, 3 Sutton Place. The spouses of Cabinet Ministers attending the general debate are also invited to this reception.
- A visit to the Museum of Modern Art on Wednesday, 26 September 2007. A continental breakfast will be served from 9.30 to 10 a.m. The private tour will begin promptly at 10 a.m. and will last about one hour. For logistical reasons, only spouses of Heads of State and Government, Vice-Presidents and Deputy Prime Ministers are invited to join Mrs. Ban for the visit to the Museum of Modern Art.

26. It is essential for the Chief of Protocol to be notified, at the earliest convenience of Permanent Representatives, of the presence of spouses of Heads of State/Government, Crown Princes and Princesses, Vice-Presidents, Deputy Prime Ministers and Cabinet Ministers in New York in order to expedite all the necessary arrangements.

IX. Security arrangements

Access to the United Nations Headquarters complex

27. The Headquarters complex will be closed to the public from 4 p.m. on Friday, 21 September 2007, through close of business on Wednesday, 3 October 2007. Access to the United Nations complex during the high-level meetings will be restricted. Outside messengers and guests will not be admitted. This should be taken into account when scheduling all appointments and meetings during the above-mentioned period. Since access to the premises will not be granted to family members, staff and delegations should make all necessary arrangements in advance in that regard. Representatives of non-governmental organizations, the media, affiliates and interns will use the 46th Street crossing point and will be directed north to the 47th Street gate to the North Lawn tent facility for accreditation and security screening. During the Secretary-General's high-level event on Monday, 24 September, representatives of non-governmental organizations who possess a valid United Nations building pass and an appropriate meeting ticket will have access to the premises. During the period of the general debate from Tuesday, 25 Sept nber, to Wednesday, 3 October, representatives of non-governmental organizations will not be granted access to the premises. Retirees will not be granted access to the premises from Saturday, 22 September, to Wednesday, 3 October 2007.

28. Grounds passes for all delegations (Member States or Observers) will be issued at the Pass and Identification Office, room U-100 of the UNITAR Building, at 801 United Nations Plaza. For grounds passes for national security officers accompanying VIPs, please contact Captain William Ball, Security and Safety Service ((212) 963-7531; see annex II, for sample request for grounds pass for security staff).

29. Any questions should be directed to the Deputy Chief of the United Nations Security and Safety Service, Kevin O'Hanlon (tel: (917) 367-5791) or the Officer-in-Charge of Uniformed Operations, Inspector Clarence Pugh (tel: (212) 963-9339). The Joint Law Enforcement Command Center will be located in room GA-101 (tel: (212) 963-0368/0369).

30. It must be emphasized that access to the United Nations will be denied to anyone who is not in the above-mentioned categories and who is not wearing a valid grounds pass. To avoid last-minute difficulties, all Governments are requested to ensure the proper accreditation of their delegations.

Access to restricted areas

31. Within the United Nations complex, there will be certain further restrictions on movements. Restricted areas have been designated, encompassing the entire second floor of the General Assembly and Conference Buildings, including the North Lounge. Bilateral booths will be provided on the second, third and fourth balconies of the General Assembly Hall and in the General Assembly Public Lobby.

32. During the high-level meetings of the General Assembly from 21 to 24 September, for security reasons, access to the restricted areas will be based on the regular delegates passes as well as secondary colour-coded access cards. The Protocol Accreditation Unit will issue to every Permanent Mission the following package: six cards of one colour for access to the General Assembly Hall and four cards of a different colour for access to the second floor of the General Assembly and Conference Buildings. All secondary colour-coded access cards will be valid only for the duration of the high-level meetings and the general debate.

33. During the general debate, special protocol tickets for the General Assembly Hall will be issued for members of delegations on a limited basis: up to 15 seats in the VIP sections A or B on the second floor; a few seats, depending on availability, in a reserved area on the third floor; and a few more seats in the balcony on the fourth floor. The seats allocated in VIP section A will only be for the duration of the address of the Head of Delegation at the plenary meeting. Written requests for such tickets for the General Assembly Hall, specifying the names and titles of all attendees (including the spouse of the dignitary speaking), should be faxed to Chief of Protocol at least one week in advance ((212) 963-1921) or delivered to the Protocol and Liaison Service in room S-0201. Guests of delegations with tickets to sections A and B in the General Assembly Hall who are not in possession of a regular United Nations grounds pass must enter United Nations Headquarters via the Visitors Entrance. Special protocol tickets should be collected two days prior to the address by the Head of Delegation at the plenary meeting.

34. Colour-coded secondary access cards for the Secretary-General's high-level event on Monday, 24 September, and for the sixty-second general debate should be collected from the Protocol and Liaison Service, room S-0201P (tel.: (212) 963-7181).

35. The hours of operation of the Pass and Identification Office and the Pass and Identification Tent of the Security and Safety Service during the high-level meetings and the general debate will be as follows:

Saturday, 15 September	1000-1800 hours
Sunday, 16 September	1000-1800 hours
Monday, 17 September	0800-1800 hours
Tuesday, 18 September	0800-1800 hours
Wednesday, 19 September	0800-1800 hours
Thursday, 20 September	0800-1800 hours
Friday, 21 September	0800-1800 hours
Saturday, 22 September	1000-1800 hours
Sunday, 23 September	1000-2000 hours
Monday, 24 September	0700-2000 hours
Tuesday, 25 September	0700-1800 hours
Wednesday, 26 September	0800-1800 hours
Thursday, 27 September	0800-1800 hours
Friday, 28 September	0800-1800 hours
Saturday, 29 September	Closed
Sunday, 30 September	Closed
Monday, 1 October	0900-1700 hours
Tuesday, 2 October	0900-1700 hours
Wednesday, 3 October	0900-1700 hours
Thursday, 4 October	Pass and ID Unit will revert to normal operation at the Main Pass Office.

X. Arrangements for bilateral meetings

Facilities

36. For bilateral meetings among Member States, a limited number of suitably appointed temporary booths, each able to hold a maximum of eight participants, will be available in the General Assembly Public Lobby and on the second, third and fourth balconies of the General Assembly Building (for contact information, see sect. XVI below).

Reservation system

37. A reservation system has been established through eMeets (emeets.un.org) as of 27 August 2007 in order to provide equitable and efficient use of the facilities, and is accessible to all Permanent and Observer Missions for this purpose. The electronic request should specify the date and time of the meeting and should include the name of the other delegation participating in the bilateral meeting. Venues for photo opportunities in connection with bilateral meetings will be available close to the temporary meeting rooms.

38. Electronic acknowledgement of receipt of each request will be given shortly after submission. Confirmation of room assignments will be provided one day prior to the meeting. Depending on the programme, every effort will be made to keep a delegation's appointments in the same room. Last-minute requests will be accepted subject to availability of space until 6 p.m. on the day prior to the meeting.

XI. Treaty signature/ratification event

39. In order to facilitate signature, ratification or accession to multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General during the sixty-second session of the General Assembly, special arrangements will be made, including media coverage, for a treaty signature/ratification event from 25 to 27 September and on 1 and 2 October 2007 in the area near the Delegates Entrance on the ground floor of the General Assembly Building, immediately to the right of the escalators. Appointments for signature, ratification or accession should be arranged well in advance with the Treaty Section (contact Sherry Holbrook or Bradford Smith at (212) 963-5047). Those countries intending to sign, ratify or accede to a treaty must submit copies of their instruments of full powers, if required, or their instruments of ratification or accession to the Treaty Section for review before 14 September 2007 at the latest. Copies of instruments may be faxed to the Treaty Section at (212) 963-3693.

40. Information relating to the Focus 2007 Treaty Event can be obtained from the United Nations Treaty Collection at http://untreaty.un.org. This includes the letter of invitation from the Secretary-General; the annual publication on the core treaties relating to this year's theme, "Towards universal participation and implementation: a comprehensive legal framework for peace, development and human rights"; a list of all multilateral treaties deposited with the Secretary-General; and procedural information. As is customary, it will be possible to undertake treaty actions with regard to any treaty deposited with the Secretary-General during the Treaty Event.

41. It is recommended that delegations, in addition to the Head of State/Government or Foreign Minister, be limited in size. It should be noted that it is the responsibility of the delegation to escort the representative who will be undertaking the relevant treaty action to the venue five minutes prior to the scheduled appointment. A Protocol Officer will greet and escort dignitaries (Head of State/Government, Vice-President, Crown Prince and Princess) from the escalators at the Delegates Entrance.

42. In order to have access to the premises during the Focus 2007 Treaty Event, national and international media must have previously obtained proper media accreditation from the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit of the Department of Public Information (contact Aberash Zewde at (212) 963-7463 or consult http://www.un.org/media/accreditation for additional information in this regard). Delegations are requested to designate an individual as a focal point for purposes of this event.

XII. Media arrangements and services

43. Media representatives in possession of a valid United Nations grounds pass will be allowed to cover the sixty-second session of the General Assembly without additional accreditation. All others will be asked to submit, in advance of the General Assembly, an online media registration form, which is available at http://www.un.org/media/accreditation/form/index.html. Please note that all media applying for accreditation online will receive e-mail notifications as to the status of their application. Also, all media submitting the registration form will be required to submit a letter of assignment from their Bureau Chief or Editor-in-Chief, addressed to the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit and faxed to (212) 963-4642. Two pieces of photo identification (such as passport, national press credentials, police press pass, driver's license or state ID) are also required. Other credentials, such as bylined articles, may be requested. Criteria for media accreditation are available at www.un.org/media/accreditation.

44. Please refer to the above-mentioned website for details regarding accreditation requirements, media access to the United Nations Secretariat, and liaison services for coverage of open and bilateral meetings, press conferences and briefings.

45. All members of the media corps accompanying Heads of State or Government or heads of delegation must submit a letter of assignment from their Bureau Chief or Editor-in-Chief, addressed to the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit, attached to an official letter from the Permanent Mission concerned, listing the names of the media representatives with their functional titles and affiliation, addressed to:

Gary Fowlie, Chief, Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit
Department of Public Information
United Nations
Fax: (212) 963-4642

46. Members of the media accompanying Heads of State or Government or heads of delegation must present themselves to the Media Accreditation Office, where they will have their photographs taken and be issued a United Nations grounds pass upon presentation of national passports and valid photo identification.

Location and work hours of the Media Accreditation Office

47. The Media Accreditation Office is situated in room 100 of the UNITAR Building, 801 First Avenue (located on the north-west corner of 45th Street and First Avenue).

48. From Friday, 14 September, to Friday, 5 October, the Media Accreditation Office will be located in a tent on the North Lawn of the United Nations Headquarters, near the 48th Street entrance (south-east corner of First Avenue and 48th Street).

49. The hours of operation for the days immediately before and during the opening of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly and general debate will be as follows:

Saturday, 15 September	1000 to 1800 hours
Sunday, 16 September	1000 to 1800 hours
Monday, 17 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Tuesday, 18 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Wednesday, 19 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Thursday, 20 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Friday, 21 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Saturday, 22 September	1000 to 1800 hours
Sunday, 23 September	1000 to 2000 hours
Monday, 24 September	0700 to 2000 hours
Tuesday, 25 September	0700 to 1800 hours
Wednesday, 26 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Thursday, 27 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Friday, 28 September	0800 to 1800 hours
Monday, 1 October to Friday, 5 October	0800 to 1800 hours

As of Monday, 8 October 2007, all pass and ID operations will resume at the Main Pass Office on the corner of 45th Street and First Avenue from 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.

50. For security reasons, all media representatives will be required to wear both their United Nations grounds pass and national press identification at all times.

Entry and screening procedures

51. All media representatives will be required to present a valid United Nations grounds pass to the United Nations security officers at the gate. The designated press entrance is at 47th Street and First Avenue.

52. Media representatives are advised to arrive early to allow sufficient time for screening. Last-minute arrivals will encounter delays, and may be further delayed should First Avenue be closed for motorcades.

Media centre and other facilities

53. The facilities in the media workspace area (on the third floor of the Secretariat Building) include television monitors, telephone, audio outlets and wireless Internet. The Ex-Press Bar on the third floor of the General Assembly Building will serve as an overflow area for the media, in particular for the official photographers and cameramen waiting to enter the booth which will be assigned to them on a rotational basis. Those locations will also be equipped with electrical outlets and a television monitor showing the proceedings in the Plenary Hall.

54. The United Nations will establish a media overflow/working area for local and visiting media in Conference Room 1 on level 1-B, which will provide the following technical services:

- Video projection showing quad split screen of the four United Nations Television programme outputs in the centre of the room
- Audio distribution of United Nations Television programmes over room sound system (eight channels) for listening
- Video and audio distribution for external recording

55. An information desk will be staffed in the media overflow/working area from 19 September 2007 to assist journalists. For queries, call the Media Centre at (212) 963-9611/9612/9613.

United Nations audio-visual materials

56. United Nations photos will be available from URL: www.un.org/av/photo. Digital photos are available as soon as the images are acquired and processed. Prints of the morning coverage will be available during the afternoon of the same day and prints of the afternoon coverage the following morning. Nominal fees for the issuance of prints may apply. Please direct all photo inquiries and requests to the United Nations Photo Library (e-mail: photolibr@un.org; room S-805 L; tel: (212) 963-6927/0034; fax: (212) 963-1658/3430).

57. Live pool United Nations Television coverage is available through Ascent Media/Waterfront and The Switch. For information on the exact coordinates, contact United Nations Television (room CB-56; tel: (212) 963-7650; fax: (212) 963-3860). A detailed schedule of live and ENG coverage will be made available to broadcast clients in advance.

58. Videotapes of speeches will be available for a fee in NTSC VHS and NTSC Betacam SP. Videotape orders requested in advance will generally be available on the day the statement is delivered. Videotapes of past coverage will be available as soon as possible. B-roll video material on selected topics is also available on NTSC Betacam. To request a videotape, contact the United Nations Video Library (room 2B-66 (second basement); tel: (212) 963-1561/1563; fax: (212) 963-3860/4501; e-mail: gonzalezm@un.org; fong@un.org; or tanj@un.org (please direct requests to all three e-mail addresses to ensure prompt attention)).

59. Digital audio files, audio cassettes or CDs of the coverage proceedings are available as soon as the statements are delivered. For information and requests, contact the United Nations Audio Library (located on the first basement concourse, level 1-B, in room GA-27; tel: (212) 963-9272/9268/9269/7662; fax: (212) 963-3860). Audio is normally available in the original language in which the statements were delivered. Special requests for recording of the interpretation in one of the six official languages should be made in advance and are subject to the limitations of recording facilities. Delegations may request one cassette or CD of each statement free of charge. Additional copies, back orders and other special requests are subject to charges and are handled by the Sound Recording Unit (room GA-13 C; tel: (212) 963-7658).

60. Limited radio studio facilities will be provided to delegates and accredited journalists. For radio studio facilities, contact United Nations Radio by e-mail: chia-rubin@un.org, and martinich@un.org (please direct requests to both e-mail addresses to ensure prompt attention).

Internet

61. The United Nations website, through a dedicated portal webpage (http://www.un.org/ga), will provide coverage of the General Assembly meetings, conferences, press briefings and events in the six official languages, including background information, press releases, news stories, documents, photos and access to radio programmes, webcast videos and statements.

62. The United Nations News Centre (www.un.org/news) will serve as the main portal for United Nations news and will be continuously updated. It will provide a wide array of links to related source materials, including press releases, selected reports and statements of the Secretary-General, General Assembly presidential statements, and other documents on major issues. Visitors to the United Nations News Centre can also subscribe to a free e-mail news alert service that will bring stories on the latest United Nations developments straight to their mailboxes or desktops.

63. The United Nations Webcast service (at www.un.org/webcast) will provide daily live and on-demand broadcasting over the Internet of General Assembly open meetings, conferences, press briefings and events. The meetings will be covered live in English and the original language of the speaker (floor). The archived webcast video will be made available on the Webcast website, along with the text of statements. In order to facilitate timely availability of statements on the website, delegations should send them via e-mail to webcast@un.org. Alternatively, clear copies of statements printed on one side of the paper should be dropped off at room S-1037A. Queries should be directed to the United Nations Webcast at (212) 963-6733.

Pool coverage

64. Nearly all visual media coverage will be done by selected media pools due to logistics and space considerations. The pools are reserved exclusively for United Nations Television, United Nations photographers, international wire services and photo agencies. In the case of print media, the United Nations Correspondents Association will notify the Department of Public Information of its representative.

65. The official media accompanying a Head of State or Government or head of delegation, including the official photographer, will not be permitted to participate in these pools. Media accompanying Heads of State or Government will be able to cover all activities of their delegation, if approved by their delegations.

66. Official photographers and television crews will have an opportunity to cover the speech of their Head of State or Government or head of delegation on a rotating basis from the press booths surrounding the General Assembly Hall. Owing to space limitations, they may not remain in the booth to cover other speeches. A limited number of still photographers, escorted by media liaison staff, will also be allowed to take photographs from the bridge at the back of the General Assembly Hall during speeches. Those operations will be coordinated from the third floor Liaison Desk in the General Assembly Building. To contact the Media Liaison Desk, call (212) 963-7756/3353.

Tickets to the press gallery in the General Assembly Hall

67. There are 53 seats available for media representatives in the press gallery of the General Assembly Hall. The Media Liaison Desk on the third floor will distribute tickets on a first-come first-served basis 30 minutes before the meeting.

Copies of speeches for the press

68. Delegations wishing to make available the text of the speech by their Head of State or Government or head of delegation are asked to bring 100 copies to the media overflow/working area in Conference Room 1 (located in the first basement (1-B) and an additional 100 copies to the Media Documents Counter, room S-394, in the third floor press area (tel: (212) 963-7165/7166). No photocopying facilities will be available for this purpose.

United Nations press release coverage

69. The Department of Public Information will provide press release coverage in English and French of open meetings of the high-level events and of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly. Press releases may be obtained from the media overflow/working area, the Media Documents Counter in the third floor press area or the United Nations website (www.un.org/apps/pressreleases). Further queries should be directed to the Press Service (tel: (212) 963-7211/2360 (English); (212) 963-7191 (French)).

Background material and other queries

70. For media materials on the high-level plenary meeting and General Assembly key issues, see the United Nations website (www.un.org). The site will also provide up-to-date information about documents, the overall programme, special events, non-governmental organization activities and a listing of live webcasts of certain segments of events.

71. For additional information, suggestions for possible interviews and other related assistance, contact the Strategic Communications Division, Department of Public Information (tel: (212) 963-5851/2932/8264; e-mail: mediainfo@un.org).

72. The General Assembly website is located at http://www.un.org/ga.

Briefings and news conferences

73. Daily noon briefings will be held for journalists in room S-226. All news conferences will be held in room S-226 unless otherwise noted. As media events are subject to change, journalists should consult the daily Media Alert, which is updated regularly and available at http://www.un.org/media/accreditation/mediaalert.asp. An updated schedule of press conferences can also be found at http://www.un.org/news/ossg/conf.htm. Delegations can book press conferences by calling the Office of the Spokesperson for the Secretary-General at (212) 963-7707/7160/7161.

Coverage of bilateral meetings

74. Photo opportunities will be available for bilateral meetings that are open for coverage, when designated as such by the press attachés of the respective Member States. Media representatives covering those meetings will be informed of such opportunities by the appropriate mission press attachés. It will be the responsibility of the press attachés to inform the Media Liaison Desk of such opportunities and the media will then be escorted by a Liaison Officer. The Media Liaison Desk is situated on the third floor outside the General Assembly Hall.

Coverage of treaty signature/ratification events

75. Media representatives will be able to cover the signature and ratification of treaties during the high-level plenary meetings from a special platform near the Delegates Entrance (ground level). There will be space for a limited number of photographers. Photographers will be escorted from the Media Liaison Office (S-250) or the Media Liaison Desk, behind the General Assembly Hall.

XIII. Medical services

76. The United Nations Medical Service operates a walk-in clinic from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. The clinic is located on the fifth floor of the Secretariat Building. In addition, during the high-level plenary meetings, a first-aid station/satellite of the Service will be set up on the second floor of the Conference Building adjacent to the elevator, in front of room C-202.

77. Physicians travelling with Heads of State or Government may contact the head nurse if they have special needs or if they need to view the facilities available at the Medical Service (Head nurse: Neomy Mantin; tel. (917) 367-3627).

XIV. Host country liaison

78. All enquiries concerning host country matters should be directed to Russell F. Graham at the United States Mission to the United Nations (regular business hours: (212) 415-4330; after hours: (212) 415-4444).

XV. Additional information and briefing sessions

79. If the need arises to update and expand the information contained herein, additional information may be issued. In addition, question-and-answer sessions for interested delegations may be arranged in the weeks leading up to the high-level meetings.

80. In the lead-up to the high-level meetings, the following documents have been or will be issued:

(a) Note verbale from the Protocol and Liaison Service on protocol/accreditation arrangements;

(b) Note verbale on bilateral meeting arrangements;

(c) Press kit for the sixty-second session of the General Assembly;

(d) Delegates Handbook;

(e) Information circular to media.

Arrangements for the Secretary-General's high-level event entitled "The future in our hands: addressing the leadership challenge of climate change"

United Nations Headquarters, 24 September 2007

Information note to delegations

07-49974 (E) 130907

I. Introduction

1. The Secretary-General has identified climate change as a defining issue of our era and seeks to help facilitate international efforts to address the problem. The reports issued by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change in 2007 show clearly that the warming of the Earth's climate system is unequivocal and attributable to human activities. Climate change is already having significant impacts in certain regions — particularly in developing countries — and on most ecosystems, and can affect the ability of developing countries to achieve the Millennium Development Goals.

2. Based on consultations that he and his Special Envoys on Climate Change have been conducting, the Secretary-General has decided to convene a high-level event in New York on 24 September 2007, the day before the opening of the general debate of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly, in order to galvanize political will for the thirteenth meeting of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, to be held in Bali, Indonesia, from 3 to 14 December 2007. The high-level event will seek to advance progress towards a global agreement under the Convention but will not seek to engage Governments in negotiations. The high-level event will build on progress made to date in the framework of the Convention process and will take into account recent initiatives by other organs of the United Nations, notably the thematic debate that the President of the General Assembly convened in New York on 31 July and 1 and 2 August 2007. The Secretary-General has encouraged the participation of all Heads of State or Government in the high-level event and has issued invitations to that effect. The event will be open to the media.

3. Two notes verbales have already been issued on behalf of the Secretary-General on the organization of the high-level event, on 12 June 2007 and 2 August 2007, respectively. The current note updates the information contained in those two notes and addresses additional issues of accessibility and security. Information on the substantive matters to be addressed at the event can be found in the background note by the Secretary-General dated 27 August 2007 (available at http://www.un.org/climatechange/2007highlevel).

4. In order to accommodate all the high-level speakers in one day, the high-level event will consist of four parallel thematic plenaries, focused on adaptation, mitigation, technology and financing, respectively. Leaders will speak for five minutes in one plenary of their choice, as per the registration process foreseen in the note verbale of 2 August 2007. All Member States are invited to attend all four thematic plenaries. At the end of the event, the Secretary-General will conclude by offering a brief summary of the proceedings. The opening and closing of the event will be held in the General Assembly Hall, while the four parallel thematic plenaries will be held in large conference rooms to be announced closer to the day of the event.

II. Arrivals and departures

5. Arrangements for the high-level event will be the same as those for the general debate of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly (see A/INF/62/3).

III. Schedule, lists of speakers, statements, documentation and interpretation

6. The high-level event will be held according to the following schedule:

Time	Programme
9-9.45 a.m.	Opening plenary meeting (General Assembly Hall)
10 a.m.-1 p.m.	Thematic plenaries (to be held in parallel; conference rooms to be announced at a later stage)
	Thematic plenary I. Adaptation "The challenge of adaptation: from vulnerability to resilience"
	Thematic plenary II. Mitigation "Reducing emissions and stabilizing the climate: safeguarding our common future"
	Thematic plenary III. Technology "Innovating a climate-friendly world: the role of technology and its dissemination"
	Thematic plenary IV. Financing "Financing the response to climate change: investing in tomorrow"
3-5 p.m.	Thematic plenaries (continued)
5.30 p.m.-6.15 p.m.	Closing (General Assembly Hall)

7. Although this is not a General Assembly event since it will be convened on the initiative and under the chairmanship of the Secretary-General, the rules of procedures of the General Assembly will be followed to the extent possible, making allowance as necessary in view of the informal and extraordinary character of the event. Thus, participation will be open to Member States, the Holy See in its capacity as observer State and Palestine in its capacity as observer. A small number of representatives of business and civil society organizations will be given the floor as special guests. Other intergovernmental organizations and entities having received a standing invitation to participate as observers in the sessions and work of the General Assembly or the Economic and Social Council, as well as entities of the United Nations system, are invited to attend the proceedings according to the seating capacity of each conference room but cannot be accommodated as speakers. A limited number of seats will be reserved for observers from civil society organizations.

8. At the opening of the high-level event, the Secretary-General will make an introductory statement. Thereafter, the President of the General Assembly will be invited to make a statement, followed by a statement by the Chair of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change. A small number of additional statements will be made by guest speakers invited by the Secretary-General.

9. Heads of State or Government and other Member State representatives will make statements in the course of the four parallel thematic plenaries, according to the list of speakers for each plenary that will be compiled following the registration process described in the note verbale of 2 August 2007. In order to accommodate all speakers, statements should not exceed five minutes, on the understanding that that will not preclude the distribution of more extensive texts. To facilitate the observance of the time limit, a light system may be installed on the lectern to signal the approach of the five-minute limit.

10. Each head of delegation speaking at a thematic plenary may be accompanied by one adviser. In the other three thematic plenaries where the head of delegation will not be speaking, two seats will be reserved for each delegation. A total of six seats will be made available to each delegation for the opening and closing sessions in the General Assembly Hall.

11. The high-level event will conclude with a brief summary of the proceedings by the Secretary-General.

12. The opening and closing sessions of the high-level event will be chaired by the Secretary-General. Each session (morning and afternoon) of each thematic plenary will be chaired by two Co-Chairs at the Head of State/Government level. The Deputy Secretary-General and the three Special Envoys on Climate Change of the Secretary-General will serve as facilitators of one thematic plenary each, on behalf of the Secretary-General. The heads of the Department of Economic and Social Affairs, the United Nations Development Programme, the United Nations Environment Programme and the Climate Change Secretariat/United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change will each serve as Rapporteur of one parallel thematic plenary.

13. A minimum of 200 copies of the text of statements to be delivered at the high-level event should be submitted in advance to the Secretariat; failing this, delegations are urged to provide six copies for the interpreters before the speaker takes the floor. If delegations wish to have the text of statements distributed to all delegations, observers, specialized agencies, interpreters, record-writers and press officers, 400 copies are required. Intergovernmental organizations and United Nations system entities may provide written inputs in lieu of statements, which can be circulated if a sufficient number of copies is provided as specified above. For distribution of the texts of statements to the press, please see section IX below.

14. Given the security arrangements in place for the high-level event, texts of statements should be delivered to the receiving area located at the rear of the General Assembly Hall between the hours of 7.30 and 9 a.m. by a delegation representative in possession of a valid United Nations building pass. Access will be through the 46th Street gate to the Visitors Entrance, through the electronic screening area to the elevators on the west side of the Lobby to the receiving area, where a representative of the Secretariat will accept the texts at a special counter. Texts of speeches will be accepted only on the same day of the event.

15. Statements made in any of the six official languages of the United Nations are interpreted into the other official languages. Any speaker may also make a statement in a language other than the official languages. In such cases, rule 53 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly will apply, requiring the delegation in question to provide either an interpreter from the non-official into an official language or a written text of the statement in one of the official languages to be read out by a United Nations interpreter. On the basis of this interpretation or the written text which is accepted by the Secretariat as representing the official text of the statement, it will be interpreted into the other official languages by United Nations interpreters. When a written text is provided, the delegation concerned should make available to the interpreter someone who knows the language in which the statement is to be delivered and the official language into which it has been translated, to guide the interpreter through the translated text and to ensure synchronization between the speaker and the interpreter. Detailed arrangements for interpretation from non-official languages, including access by non-United Nations interpreters to the interpreters booths in the General Assembly Hall, must be made in advance through the Planning and Meeting Servicing Section (tel.: (212) 963-8114; fax: (212) 963-7405; e-mail: emeetsm@un.org).

16. The opening and closing of the high-level event, as well as the four parallel thematic plenaries, will be broadcast on UN TV and on the Internet through webcasting.

IV. Registration and accreditation

17. Accreditation of official delegations and members of the parties of Heads of State/Government, Crown Princes/Princesses and Vice-Presidents will be carried out by the Protocol and Liaison Service. Missions are kindly requested to communicate the names, functional titles and affiliations of all the members of the respective delegations, together with the SG.6 form entitled "Registration of members of delegations to temporary meetings",[1] duly filled out, to the Chief of Protocol (room S-0201; fax: (212) 963-1921).

18. Once the lists of delegates, together with the SG.6 forms are received at the Protocol and Liaison Service, they will be reviewed and authorized. To ensure the issuance of United Nations grounds passes in a timely manner, representatives of Permanent/Observer Missions are requested to collect the authorized applications 48 hours after submission to the Protocol and Liaison Service and deliver them to the delegates who will proceed to the pass and identification unit for processing. If the name and the photograph of a delegate are already in the computer system of the Pass and Identification Office, his/her pass may be collected by a representative of the Permanent/Observer Mission in the absence of the delegate, upon presentation of the authorized application and a valid United Nations grounds pass. Otherwise, delegates who are in need of a photo ID are required to go with their SG.6 forms to the Pass and Identification Office, 45th Street and First Avenue, to have a photo taken and a pass processed.

19. Heads of State/Government, Vice-Presidents, Crown Princes/Princesses and their spouses will be offered VIP passes without photographs. Deputy Prime Ministers, Cabinet Ministers and spouses thereof will be provided with VIP passes with photographs. In order for a VIP pass to be issued, appropriate requests and two colour passport-size photographs should be submitted in advance to the Protocol and Liaison Service.

[1] SG.6 forms may be downloaded from the following website: http://missions.un.int/protocol.

20. Delegations wishing to send colour photographs by e-mail must scan the official letter and photograph, and send them together in one complete package to curran@un.org. Colour photographs must be in jpeg format only.

21. A separate list specifying the names of the members of the party of the Head of State or Government who require access to the United Nations — as well as their occupations (aides de camp, interpreters, physicians etc.) — must be submitted together with the SG.6 forms to the Protocol and Liaison Service. Passes for members of security details accompanying VIPs will be issued by the United Nations Security and Safety Service (tel.: (917) 367-9939). Passes for media personnel will be handled by the Media Accreditation Unit (tel.: (212) 963-6934).

22. Working hours of the Accreditation Unit in the Protocol and Liaison Service ((212) 963-7181) and the United Nations Pass and Identification Office (ground floor of the UNITAR Building, 45th Street and First Avenue ((212) 963-7533), in the days prior and during the general debate, will be posted at the Protocol website (mission.un.int/protocol) and at the entry to each respective office at the latest by 4 September 2007.

V. Welcoming get-together

23. There will be an informal welcoming get-together on the morning of 24 September in two areas — the Indonesian Lounge for Heads of State and Government and their spouses, and the treaty-signing area at the Delegates Entrance south of the escalator for all cabinet-level ministers and their spouses. Light refreshments will be available in both areas, as a courtesy, from 8 to 8.50 a.m. prior to the opening of the high-level event.

VI. Event sponsored by the Presidents of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change

24. The Secretariat has been informed that a side event on the theme "Global voices on climate change" will be hosted during lunch time by Kenya, Indonesia, Poland and Denmark, who are the current and future Presidents of the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change. The side event will be held on United Nations premises and will feature prominent guest speakers. Lunch will be available. Invitations will be sent by the organizers to all Heads of Delegation plus one, as well as to the heads of United Nations system entities. For further information on this event, please contact:

Erik Høeg
Counsellor (Environment/Climate change)

VII. Security arrangements

Access to the United Nations Headquarters complex

25. Arrangements for the high-level event will be the same as those for the general debate of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly (see A/INF/62/3).

Access to restricted areas

26. During the high-level event on 24 September 2007, for security reasons, access to restricted areas will be based on regular delegates passes plus secondary colour-coded access cards. For that purpose, the Protocol and Liaison Service will issue passes as follows:

(a) Every Permanent Mission will be issued six cards of one colour for access to the General Assembly Hall for the opening and closing sessions, and four cards of a different colour for access to the second floor of the General Assembly and Conference Buildings;

(b) In addition, every Permanent Mission will be issued two cards of another colour for each of the conference rooms in which the thematic plenaries will be held;

(c) Intergovernmental organizations and United Nations system entities with assigned seats in the General Assembly Hall will need to obtain colour passes to ensure access to those seats on the day of the high-level event;

(d) Each such organization and entity will also be provided with one colour pass for each of the conference rooms where the thematic plenaries will be held;

(e) Representatives of non-governmental organizations accredited to the Economic and Social Council and organizations admitted to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change will require special access cards to observe the high-level event. A limited number of such cards will be made available to both groups. For details on obtaining access cards, please refer to the website of the high-level event at http://www.un.org/climatechange/2007highlevel.

27. Seats will be reserved in a VIP area for spouses of the Heads of State/Government, Crown Princes/Princesses, Vice-Presidents, Deputy Prime Ministers and cabinet ministers participating in the event, provided that the Chief of Protocol is notified in advance of their attendance at the session.

28. Colour-coded access cards for the high-level event, including thematic plenary sessions, should be collected from the Protocol and Liaison Service, room S-0201P (tel.: (212) 963-7181) on or after 17 September 2007, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. (for non-governmental organizations, see para. 25 (e) above).

VIII. Arrangements for bilateral meetings

29. Arrangements for the high-level event will be the same as those for the general debate of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly (see A/INF/62/3).

IX. Media arrangements and services

30. Media representatives in possession of a valid United Nations grounds pass will be allowed to cover the Secretary-General's High-level Event on Climate Change without additional accreditation. All others will be asked to submit, in advance of the Event, an online media registration form, which is available at http://www.un.org/media/accreditation/form/index.html. Please note that all media applying for accreditation online will receive e-mail notifications as to the status of their application. Also, all media submitting the registration form will be required to submit a letter of assignment from their Bureau Chief or Editor-in-Chief, addressed to the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit and faxed to (212) 963-4642. Two pieces of photo identification (such as passport, national press credentials, police press pass, driver's license or state ID) are also required. Other credentials, such as bylined articles, may be requested. Criteria for media accreditation are available at www.un.org/media/accreditation.

31. Please refer to the above-mentioned website for details regarding accreditation requirements, media access to the United Nations Secretariat, and liaison services for coverage of open and bilateral meetings, press conferences and briefings.

32. All members of the media corps accompanying Heads of State or Government or heads of delegation must submit a letter of assignment from their Bureau Chief or Editor-in-Chief, addressed to the Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit, attached to an official letter from the Permanent Mission concerned, listing the names of the media representatives with their functional titles and affiliation, addressed to:

Gary Fowlie, Chief, Media Accreditation and Liaison Unit
Department of Public Information
United Nations
Fax: (212) 963-4642

33. Members of the media accompanying Heads of State or Government or heads of delegation must present themselves to the Media Accreditation Office, where they will have their photographs taken and be issued a United Nations grounds pass upon presentation of national passports and valid photo identification.

Location and work hours of the Media Accreditation Office

34. The Media Accreditation Office is situated in room 100 of the UNITAR Building, 801 First Avenue (located on the north-west corner of 45th Street and First Avenue).

35. From Friday, 14 September, to Friday, 5 October, the Media Accreditation Office will be located in a tent on the North Lawn of the United Nations Headquarters, near the 48th Street entrance (south-east corner of First Avenue and 48th Street).

37. For security reasons, all media representatives will be required to wear both their United Nations grounds pass and national press identification at all times.

Entry and screening procedures

38. All media representatives will be required to present a valid United Nations grounds pass to the United Nations security officers at the gate. The designated press entrance is at 47th Street and First Avenue.

39. Media representatives are advised to arrive early to allow sufficient time for screening. Last-minute arrivals wil' encounter delays, and may be further delayed should First Avenue be closed for motorcades.

Media centre and other facilities

40. The facilities in the media workspace area (on the third floor of the Secretariat Building) include television monitors, telephone, audio outlets and wireless Internet. The Ex-Press Bar, on the third floor of the General Assembly Building will serve as an overflow area for the media, in particular for the official photographers and cameramen waiting to enter the booth which will be assigned to them on a rotational basis. Those locations will also be equipped with electrical outlets and a television monitor showing the proceedings in the Plenary Hall.

41. The United Nations will establish a media overflow/working area for local and visiting media in Conference Room 1 on level 1-B, which will provide the following technical services:

- Video projection showing quad split screen of the four United Nations Television programme outputs in the centre of the room
- Audio distribution of United Nations Television programmes over room sound system (eight channels) for listening
- Video and audio distribution for external recording.

42. An information desk will be staffed in the media overflow/working area from 19 September 2007 to assist journalists. For queries, call the Media Centre at (212) 963-9611/9612/9613.

United Nations audio-visual materials

43. United Nations photos will be available from URL: www.un.org/av/photo. Digital photos are available as soon as the images are acquired and processed. Prints of the morning coverage will be available during the afternoon of the same day and prints of the afternoon coverage the following morning. Nominal fees for the issuance of prints may apply. Please direct all photo enquiries and requests to the United Nations Photo Library (e-mail: photolibr@un.org; room S-805 L; tel.: (212) 963-6927/0034; fax: (212) 963-1658/3430).

44. Live pool United Nations Television coverage is available through Ascent Media/Waterfront and The Switch. For information on the exact coordinates, contact United Nations Television (room CB-56; tel.: (212) 963-7650; fax: (212) 963-3860). A detailed schedule of live and ENG coverage will be made available to broadcast clients in advance.

45. Videotapes of speeches will be available for a fee in NTSC VHS and NTSC Betacam SP. Videotape orders requested in advance will generally be available on the day the statement is delivered. Videotapes of past coverage will be available as soon as possible. B-roll video material on selected topics is also available on NTSC Betacam. To request a videotape, contact the United Nations Video Library (room 2B-66 (second basement); tel.: (212) 963-1561/1563; fax: (212) 963-3860/4501; e-mail: gonzalezm@un.org; fong@un.org; or tanj@un.org (please direct requests to all three e-mail addresses to ensure prompt attention)).

46. Digital audio files, audio cassettes or CDs of the coverage proceedings are available as soon as the statements are delivered. For information and requests, contact the United Nations Audio Library (located on the first basement concourse, level 1-B, in room GA-27; tel.: (212) 963-9272/9268/9269/7662; fax: (212) 963-3860). Audio is normally available in the original language in which the statements were delivered. Special requests for recording of the interpretation in one of the six official languages should be made in advance and are subject to the limitations of recording facilities. Delegations may request one cassette or CD of each statement free of charge. Additional copies, back orders and other special requests are subject to charges and are handled by the Sound Recording Unit (room GA-13 C; tel.: (212) 963-7658).

47. Limited radio studio facilities will be provided to delegates and accredited journalists. For radio studio facilities, contact United Nations Radio by e-mail: chia-rubin@un.org, and martinich@un.org (please direct requests to both e-mail addresses to ensure prompt attention).

Internet

48. The United Nations website, through a dedicated portal webpage (http://www.un.org/climatechange), will provide coverage of the high-level event, General Assembly meetings, conferences, press briefings and events in the six official languages, including background information, press releases, news stories, documents, photos and access to radio programmes, webcast videos and statements.

49. The United Nations News Centre portal (www.un.org/news) provides continuously updated coverage of a wide range of developments at the United Nations Headquarters in New York and United Nations-related activities around the world. Visitors can subscribe to free e-mail news alerts or use a broad array of source materials, including summaries of meetings of the General Assembly, the high-level event, Security Council and other United Nations bodies, statements by the Secretary-General and his Spokesperson, press releases, transcripts of press briefings and news conferences, as well as an array of multimedia products, from Webcasts and photos to audio and video programming by United Nations TV and Radio.

50. The United Nations Webcast service (www.un.org/webcast) will provide daily live and on-demand broadcasting over the Internet, of the General Assembly open meetings, conferences, press briefings and events. The meetings will be covered live in English and the original language of the speaker (floor). The archived webcast video will be made available on the Webcast website, along with the text of statements. In order to facilitate timely availability of statements on the website, delegations should send them via e-mail to webcast@un.org. Alternatively, clear copies of statements printed on one side of the paper should be dropped off at room S-1037A. Queries should be directed to the United Nations Webcast at (212) 963-6733.

Pool coverage

51. Nearly all visual media coverage will be done by selected media pools due to logistics and space considerations. The pools are reserved exclusively for United Nations Television, United Nations photographers, international wire services and photo agencies. In the case of print media, the United Nations Correspondents Association will notify the Department of Public Information of its representative.

52. The official media accompanying a Head of State or Government or head of delegation, including the official photographer, will not be permitted to participate in these pools. Media accompanying Heads of State or Government will be able to cover all activities of their delegation, if approved by their delegations.

53. Official photographers and television crews will have an opportunity to cover the speech of their Head of State or Government or head of delegation on a rotating basis from the press booths surrounding the meeting hall(s). Owing to space limitations, they may not remain in the booth to cover other speeches. A limited number of still photographers, escorted by media liaison staff, will also be allowed to take photographs from the bridge at the back of the meeting hall(s) during speeches. Those operations will be coordinated by the Liaison Officer(s) accompanying the media.

Tickets to the press gallery in the meeting hall(s)

54. There are a limited number of tickets available for media representatives for the press gallery of the meeting hall(s). The Media Liaison Desk on the third floor will distribute tickets on a first-come first-served basis 30 minutes before the meeting.

Copies of speeches for the press

55. Delegations wishing to make available the text of the speech by their Head of State or Government or head of delegation are asked to bring 100 copies to the media overflow/working area in Conference Room 1 (located in the first basement (1-B)) and an additional 100 copies to the Media Documents Counter, room S-394, in the third floor press area (tel.: (212) 963-7165/7166). No photocopying facilities will be available for this purpose.

United Nations press release coverage

56. The Department of Public Information will provide press release coverage in English and French of open meetings of the high-level events and of the sixty-second session of the General Assembly. Press releases may be obtained from the media overflow/working area or the Media Documents Counter in the third floor press area, or the United Nations website (www.un.org/apps/pressreleases). Further queries should be directed to the Press Service (tel.: (212) 963-7211/2360 (English); (212) 963-7191 (French)).

Background material and other queries

57. For media materials on the high-level plenary meeting and General Assembly key issues, see the United Nations website (www.un.org). The site will also provide up-to-date information about documents, the overall programme, special events, non-governmental organization activities and a listing of live webcasts of certain segments of events.

58. For additional information, suggestions for possible interviews and other related assistance, contact the Strategic Communications Division, Department of Public Information (tel.: (212) 963-5851/2932/8264; e-mail: mediainfo@un.org).

59. The website for the General Assembly is located at http://www.un.org/ga.

Briefings and news conferences

60. Daily noon briefings will be held for journalists in room S-226. All news conferences will be held in room S-226 unless otherwise noted. As media events are subject to change, journalists should consult the daily Media Alert, which is updated regularly and available at http://www.un.org/media/accreditation/mediaalert.asp. An updated schedule of press conferences can also be found at http://www.un.org/news/ossg/conf.htm. Delegations can book press conferences by calling the Office of the Spokesperson for the Secretary-General at (212) 963-7707/7160/7161.

Coverage of bilateral meetings

61. Photo opportunities will be available for bilateral meetings that are open for coverage, when designated as such by the press attachés of the respective Member States. Media representatives covering those meetings will be informed of such opportunities by the appropriate mission press attachés. It will be the responsibility of the press attachés to inform the Media Liaison Desk of such opportunities and the media will then be escorted by a Liaison Officer. The Media Liaison Desk is situated on the third floor outside the General Assembly Hall.

Registration form

List of speakers for the Secretary-General's high-level event on climate change New York, 24 September 2007

The list of speakers for each of the high-level event's four thematic plenaries is now open. All plenaries are open in terms of attendance to all Member States and Observers, but each Member State and Observer will have one 5-minute speaking slot at only one of the plenaries, allocated on the basis of expressions of interest to be submitted through this form.

Permanent and Observer Missions are invited to inform the Secretariat of the name and function of the official who will deliver the statement for their delegation, specifying in which of the thematic plenaries the statement would be delivered (first and second choice). Every effort will be made to accommodate such preferences.

Delegations are requested to complete and return this registration form to the return address below as soon as possible but not later than 31 August.
